LEFT OVER FROM THE THE ANNUAL FURNITURE SALE

Clearing tomorrow at still lower prices

THE February Furniture Sale of 1914 has slipped into the eventful past, but it has left us I with many odd pieces to remind us of its record-breaking business. Since the close of the sale last Saturday we have gathered these pieces together, and the clearaway comes tomorrow at prices still lower than during February.

The list below is not a complete one of the pieces in this special clearaway event, but the items are typical of the underprices on them all. If there is a furniture need in your home that should be filled, be here when the store opens at 9 clock tomorrow morning—even a brief delay may bring disappointments, as the very piece you want may be sold within a few minutes

It is not necessary to pay for your furniture in full tomorrow

Like all other homefurnishings, furniture may be purchased on the Club Plan of deferred terms without any addition to the sale price and without the charge of an extra penny. Under the Right, House plan there is no extra charge of any sort—no interest, no fee, no incidentals. A fractional payment is required at the time of the purchase.
